

CONGRATULATIONS

ON THE NEW JOB!

You're very fortunate to have joined a company that cares about its community. They understand that the power of giving helps create a stronger community in which we all can live, work, learn and play.

United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County partners with area businesses and their employees to advance the common good for all. Your employer as one of those businesses is inviting you to join them and your co-workers in making an impact in our community.

SIGN UP TODAY FOR EASY PAYROLL DEDUCTION!

Check out our brochure or visit our website to learn more about United Way and all we do. Once you're ready, invest in your community by signing up with your UW Campaign Coordinator or HR office for payroll deduction.

An investment in United Way supports... local nonprofits that provide critical and effective programs which address children's reading ability, barriers to education, critical health services and self-sufficiency to residents here in Danville and Pittsylvania County.
