

United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Statement

Diversity and inclusion have long been an important aspect of the United Way's collective action in order to make a difference. They are vital to achieving our mission, living our values, and advancing the common good.

The United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County fosters and promotes an inclusive environment that leverages the unique contributions of diverse individuals and organizations in all aspects of our work. We know that by bringing diverse individuals and viewpoints together we can collectively and more effectively create opportunities for a better life for all.

The United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County takes the broadest possible view of diversity, going beyond visible differences to affirm the essence of all individuals including realities, background, experiences, skills, and perspectives that make each person who they are. Engaging the power of diverse talent and partners results in innovative solutions and the community ownership necessary to address complex social issues.

Diversity and inclusion are at the heart of what it means to LIVE UNITED.

Anti-Racism/Ethnic Discrimination Statement

The United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County denounces racial and ethnic discrimination in all forms. In advancing our mission to improve lives and meet community needs by uniting people and resources, we fight for the health, education and financial stability of every person in the Danville-Pittsylvania County community and oppose discriminatory systems, policies, and institutional practices that negatively impact segments of our population. Through our many partnerships, we mobilize resources, promote collaboration, and support programs that make a meaningful difference in the lives of local residents and advance equity throughout our community.
